

Q7.8

When a website has a privacy policy, it means the site will not share my information with other websites or companies without my permission.

