

Q9.3

Let...s say that store combines the data from your sample with other data the store has about you in order create profiles the company can use to decide what advertising and marketing campaigns to include you. How would you feel about sending in the sample?

