

Q7.6

It is legal for an online store to charge people different prices depending on where they are located.

